

Full-Stack Developer

Team: - PolicyBazaar

Developer:- Ankit Gupta

Introduction

Full-stack developers at PolicyBazaar handle both frontend and backend systems of the “.ae (United Arab Emirates) domain”, ensuring seamless integration and optimal performance for financial applications. This document provides an overview of their daily workflow, tools, challenges, and growth opportunities.

Tech Stack & Tools

- Frontend: ReactJS, JavaScript, JSX.
- Backend: Java Spring Boot, Apache Kafka, SAP APIs, SOAP APIs.
- Databases: MySQL, Oracle DB, MS SQL Server.
- Tools: Eclipse, IntelliJ, VS Code, DBeaver, Jira, Git, DevOps.

Daily Workflow

- Morning Routine: Checking emails, Jira updates, and participating in Scrum calls to discuss progress and blockers.
- Development Tasks:
 - Implementing back-end functionality and developing front-end components.
 - Creating APIs and managing database interactions.
 - Debugging and writing unit tests for quality assurance.
- Collaboration:
 - Working with UI/UX designers and backend engineers.
 - Conducting peer code reviews and engaging with product managers.
- Testing & Deployment:
 - Running unit and integration tests.
 - Deploying to staging, resolving QA-reported bugs, and pushing to production.

Challenges & Growth

- Challenges: Meeting deadlines, troubleshooting production issues, balancing features with bug fixes, and ensuring security compliance.
- Career Progression: Growth from Developer → Senior Developer → Tech Lead, with exposure to DevOps, cloud computing, and cybersecurity.

Conclusion

Full-stack developers at PolicyBazaar.ae play a crucial role in building scalable and secure financial solutions. Their work blends coding, collaboration, problem-solving, and continuous learning, offering exciting career opportunities in a dynamic tech environment.